You can enjoy snow-covered Himalayan ranges which look so amazing and pure. From the Buddhist point of view, Namobuddha is one of the most important religious sites in Nepal. Thrangu Tashi Yangtse connects the story of compassion shown by the Buddha in his one of the incarnations, offering his own flesh to the hungry tigress who was totally ill and was about to eat her cubs around. On this day, we will stay overnight at this sacred place.

Day 7 : After breakfast at the monastery, drive to Kopan monastery

Today we will visit the Kopan Monastery and Nunnery which is 6 km far away from Kathmandu. It is a wonderful pilgrimage and touristy hub. It is a Tibetan Buddhist monastery near Boudhanath, on the outskirts of Kathmandu. It belongs to the Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana Tradition (FPMT), an international network of Gelugpa dharma centers, and once served as its headquarters. The monastery was established by the FPMT founders, Lamas Thubten Yeshe and Thubten Zopa Rinpoche, who bought the property from Nepal's royal astrologer in 1969. Its name comes from the name of the hill on which it was built. Kopan has become especially famous for teaching Buddhism. The first of what would become annual month-long (November–December) meditation courses was held in 1971. These courses generally combine traditional Lam Rim teachings with informal discussion, several periods of guided meditation, and a vegetarian diet. After a day visit to the monastery, transfer to airport. At evening, you can enjoy your leisure time or do some shopping of famous Nepalese handicrafts.
