

Everest Region Heli Tour Landing at Kalapattar

Trip code
Package name	Everest Region Heli Tour Landing at Kalapattar
Duration	1
Max. elevation	5450 m
Level	MODERATE
Transportation	Heli Tour
Accommodation	Everest View Hotel
Starts at	Kathmandu
Ends at	Kathmandu
Trip route	Kathmandu - Lukla - Everest View Hotel - Kalapattar - Lukla - Kathmandu
Cost	USD 1,250 per person

Highlights

- Scenic Helicopter flight from Kathmandu to Mt. Everest base camp with panoramic views.
- Helicopter Landing at Everest view hotel for Breakfast and amazing views
- 15 min Helicopter Landing at Kalapattar for the best view of Mt. Everest
- Experience Everest from Helicopter within a short time period
- Best view of the green alpine forest of rhododendron, pine trees, Khumbu icefall, and glaciers.
- The helicopter tour to Everest Base Camp is a massive day tour to experience Everest just in one day.
- Scenic helicopter flight over the world's tallest mountain series.

Overview

Everest Base Camp Helicopter tour is ideal for those who don't have enough period of time to trek hours and hours for a number of days. Similarly, physically disabled people who have a hunger of exploring the tallest peak of the world can do this tour within a few hours of time. People might be wondering how difficult it would be to explore Mt. Everest. But this luxurious tour has been designed for those who feel like they can find it difficult to trek. This thrilling tour offers incredible views of pristine mountain peaks at very close range. The major allure of this tour is to have close-up views of the world's tallest peaks along with some other famous peaks like Gaurishankar, Cho-Oyu, Lhakpa Dorje, and many others.

Everest Base Camp helicopter tour begins from the domestic terminal of Tribhuvan International Airport, Kathmandu. The flight takes off from the airport you can see eagle eye views of many heritage sites of Kathmandu valley. As the flight moves ahead towards the eastern side then the snowcapped peaks begin to appear in front of your eyes. The chopper will land at an airport for a while to complete some procedures for your trip. During the break, you can enjoy the views of Himalayan chain bounded around the Lukla village.

After completion of a short break, your adventurous trip to Everest region Helicopter Tour begins as many mountain peaks await us in the route. When helicopter land at Everest Base camp, you may not believe your eyes as you are witnessing the world's tallest peak in front of your eyes. Similarly, peaks like Ama Dablam, Thamserku, Lhotse and many more peaks along with Khumbu glacier can be seen from the base camp.

From Base camp, the flight will take you to Kala Patthar (5480m)-the best viewpoint to enjoy the 360 degree views of Everest and other peaks including stunning landscapes. You can snap some pictures as a memory of having a great journey to Everest. Then from Kala Patthar helicopter will take you to Everest view hotel to have a delicious breakfast and enjoy the beautiful scenery. After finishing your breakfast you will head back to Kathmandu enjoying the views of beautiful villages and valleys in the way.

So, enjoy this adventurous trip with us for Everest Base Camp helicopter tour with the best price. We are providing quality helicopter service to our visitors at a reasonable price. With experience guide and well-trained pilots who have been flying for a long period of time, we assure you to satisfy your every need and desire during the whole tour. The flight to EBC we provide you during the tour is designed in such a way with full window seats which allow you to enjoy dazzling views of scenic beauty.

Everest base camp helicopter tour flight route is Kathmandu-Lukla-Syangboche-Everest base camp-Hotel Everest view-Lukla-Kathmandu.

Everest base camp helicopter tour is landing at two different points. This makes your trip more interesting. Once is at Kalapattar to take beautiful views of the high mountain and feel altitude. After that, your flight will land at Everest view hotel for breakfast and enjoy the best view of Mt. Everest Region.

There are many ways to reach the Everest base camp. Drive to Jiri and trekking to Everest base camp, drive or flight to Phaplu (Salleri) and trek to Everest base camp, flight to Lukla is the best trekking route of Everest region. The long route of reaching Everest base camp is Jiri to Everest base camp and the short and one of the best, easy ways to reach Everest base camp is by riding a helicopter to Everest Base Camp with landing at Kalapattar. This is a luxury way to be Everest base camp by Helicopter.

Your helicopter tour is the best alternative way to reach Everest base camp because when your tour beginning to the end of your journey you will not get a chance to give a rest for your eyes. Every second This tour gives you a different view of the valley, forest and mountain of Everest region in this trip.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1 : Everest Base Camp Heli Tour - Kalapattar stopover 5450m. - 3 hrs

The Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour with landing is considered the best helicopter tour in Nepal so far within 3 to 4 hours reach to the Everest Base Camp from Kathmandu. However, the Everest Base Camp Helicopter tour starts early in the morning from Kathmandu, our breakfast at the Everest View Hotel which is the highest deluxe hotel in the world at a height of 3,880 m.

Phase one:

The Helicopter takeoff from Kathmandu's domestic terminal towards Lulu Airport and it takes you above the Nagarkot, the alpine forest at Jiri, terraced fields, and finally lands at Lukla airport to refuel and flight procedures.

Phase two:

After refueling at Lukla, we fly over the famous town Namache Bazaar towards Kalapatthar. On the way, we will get to experience local settlements in Khumbu regions Tyangboche, Pangboche, Pheriche, and Dingboche. And you will get to experience an aerial view of the snowcapped Himalaya range and the huge Khumbu glacier. Finally, land at Kala Patthar viewpoint which is located above the Everest Base Camp from where could observe incredible panoramic views of Mount Everest range including Everest. However, landing at Kala Patthar is one of the memorial lifetime experiences.

Phase Three:

After a 10 to 15 minutes stopover at Kala Patthar, we take off towards Everest View Hotel in Syangboche. We land at Everest View hotel for breakfast where you can have a delicious breakfast enjoying panoramic views and Khumbu valley.

Phase Four:

From the Everest View Hotel, we fly towards Kathmandu. Before flying too directly to Kathmandu, the helicopter land at Lukla airport for quick refueling. After a short landing at Lukla airport, the helicopter flies towards Kathmandu directly and land at Kathmandu domestic airport where our airport representative picks up you and transfer you to the hotel.

Inclusions

What is included?

- Private transportation to Kathmandu domestic airport from Hotel.
- Helicopter sightseeing Flight around Everest Region from Kathmandu - Kathmandu airport on sharing basis maximum of 4 persons in one Helicopter.
- Landing at Kalapatthar for 15 minutes.
- Landing at Everest View Hotel for 40 to 55 minutes for breakfast.
- Breakfast in Everest View Hotel and all kinds of drinks.
- Oxygen Cylinder in Helicopter (if in case of emergency).
- Sagarmatha National park entrance fee (NPR 5,500 per person) .
- Passenger insurance.
- All the government and local tax/vat .
- Private transportation to the hotel from Kathmandu domestic airport.

What isn't included?

- Personal equipment and expenses.
- Tips for staff.
- Extra costs not mentioned on cost include sections.

Complimentary